June 5: "Coming of Age"

—Dana Ryon and Erik Halseth, CVUUF Religious Education

This year's participants, Lizette Deemar and Grant Schlaus, will remind our congregation that our youth are stunning, kindhearted, and exactly the type of people we want in this world. Come and witness this sweet milestone. (Bring tissues.)

June 12: "Atheist, Theist, Christian, Pagan...How Do We Juggle It All?"

—Rev. Anne Felton Hines

We are a faith of many theological perspectives; how do we welcome all? How does this one congregation remain "home" for each? This topic was "won" at our auction by Jenny Schipae.

June 19: "A True Dad: The Father Figure of Atticus"

—Reverend Hannah Petrie

This Fathers' Day we will look at the literary figure of Atticus Finch, as more fully defined in Harper Lee's Go Set a Watchman. Is it a loss that Atticus turns out not to be as noble as we once understood him, or does knowledge of his true traits give us something more valuable?

Reverend Hannah Petrie graduated from Starr King School for the Ministry in its centennial year, 2004, and has served UU congregations in Michigan, Texas, Florida, and most recently, Pasadena, CA.

June 26: "Revelation is Not Sealed"

—Ken Collier, Minister Emeritus, Unitarian Society of Santa Barbara

We usually think that truth comes through reason, science, mathematics, that sort of thing. But suppose, just suppose, there is another source of truth. Suppose truth can also be revealed. Then what? As one of our hymns has it, "Revelation is not sealed."

Reverend Kenneth Collier is also the author of the Skinner House book, 'Our Seven Principles' and a self-published book about Unitarian Universalist spirituality, 'Finger-Pointing Essays.'

Minister's Schedule: Rev. Anne will be out-of-town from June 19-21 for meetings in Columbus, OH, and then on vacation from June 22-29. If you have a pastoral emergency, please contact the Pastoral Care Committee, or the Fellowship office.

It's May 22nd as I write this, and I'm on a plane to Baltimore, where I'll be trained by the UUA to become one of their Ministerial Transition Team members, consulting with congregations transitioning from one settled minister to the next.

But today is a big day at CVUUF, because you've just called the Reverend Nica Eaton-Guinn to be your Settled Minister, and she accepted! I am so very pleased -- both for you and for her; I think you have an exciting shared journey ahead of you.

Getting to this day carried some anxieties, of course, beginning all the way back when you learned of Rev. Lora's departure; and all those anxieties that followed were to be expected during transition, especially one that was unexpected. And you've weathered it beautifully.

But then came Candidating Week, and the realization that a number of members would be out-of-town the final day of it, when a 60% quorum was required in order to vote whether to call Rev. Nica as your minister. This raised more than the usual angst experienced by congregations and Candidates! So there followed a tremendous effort by a number of people to ensure as great a turnout as possible.

So I was thinking a lot about all of you this morning, aware that the meeting was beginning as I drove to LAX, and that by the time I boarded, some decision would have been made. While I waited at the Southwest gate, I got a call from Willie, telling me the good news: that not only was the quorum reached, but that the vote had been unanimous! How wonderful!

And much praise is deserved for your Ministerial Search Committee, who put in untold hours going through all the steps of the search process; and their families, who gave up untold hours with them for the sake of this important work.

And I know the MSC enlisted the help of others for some of their tasks -- photos for the search website, hosts for cottage meetings, meals prepared for pre-candidates, contract negotiation, and more; it's a huge effort.

But look at the result! Well worth it, indeed!

So now, we begin the process of finishing up our Interim Ministry together, and saying goodbye so that you can turn your attention fully to your new ministry with Rev. Nica. I am reminded of one of my favorite children's books -- I Hate Goodbyes! -- because I really do; I avoid them like the proverbial plague.

But to avoid our goodbyes would be unfair to you and to me. We will have had a good year-&-a-half together by the time I leave; you've shared with me your tears, your stories, some of your hopes for CVUUF, and listened to mine. And you've laughed at my jokes; what more could I ask for?!

So let's use the rest of this time well. My final worship service with you will be July 17th, with a few more days after that before I take the rest of my vacation. I'm looking forward to "tying up" any necessary "loose ends" between now and then. And I'm looking toward to hearing more of your hopes for this Fellowship. But mostly, I'm looking forward to watching all of you as you turn your faces toward the future, and prepare for an enriching new ministry with Rev. Nica.

Anne

What a glorious and momentous occasion we shared on Sunday, May 22! It was an outpouring of love, joyful energy, and unity. As Candidating Week reached its culmination and an overflow throng of CVUUF members voted unanimously to call Rev. Nica Eaton-Guinn to be our next settled minister, I recalled the lyrics of the UU hymn "The Fire of Commitment."

*When the fire of commitment sets our mind and soul ablaze;
when our hunger and our passion meet to call us on our way;
when we live with deep assurance of the faith that burns within;
then our promise finds fulfillment and our future can begin.*

Our Unitarian Universalist community and its members are engaged in a vital mission - to nurture spiritually courageous people who transform the world through justice and compassion. As we prepare for Rev Nica's arrival in August, we have wind in our sails. We have much to be thankful for and much to look forward to.

I hope you will attend our Annual Meeting on June 12. I'm thrilled by the slate of candidates our Leadership Cultivation Committee has presented for the Board of Trustees. We're fortunate to have such skilled and capable people to serve as leaders - and they are fortunate to have such a wonderful congregation. We expect to close the year with a balanced budget and to present a sound plan for the upcoming fiscal year.

During Candidating Week, Rev Nica and our Stewardship Committee met and brainstormed on a stewardship campaign theme we can all rally around in the upcoming year. The result is "Growing Together - In Spirit, In Service, In Generosity." Rev. Nica said: "It's inspiring. Great work!" I agree. This theme will be resonating in the next few months.

This is my final newsletter column as Board President. My term will end on June 30. A visiting minister once asked me why I volunteer in our congregation. I told her I always receive far more than I give. That has been true for me the entire last four years. The opportunity to support our congregation, in any way, is a gift.

The poet Maya Angelou wrote "Let gratitude be the pillow upon which you kneel to say your nightly prayer. And let faith be the bridge you build to overcome evil and welcome good."

As outgoing President of the Board of Trustees, my heart is full with gratitude. For every member and friend. For all the amazing people I've served with. For Rev. Anne Hines, Rev. Lora Brandis, all our staff professionals, and the Unitarian Universalist Association. I'm especially grateful for my wife, Liza Diniakos and our son Henry and daughter Sophia.

Thank you for the honor and privilege to serve as your Board President.

See you on Sunday!

Willie

So much excitement!!!

In case you didn't notice, May was emotional and energizing and uplifting and exhausting, and just plain a-MAY-zing. Sorry, I couldn't resist. We have been blessed with the arrival of Reverend Nica Eaton-Guinn and her family (as of August 16). Nica and her husband, Michael, have taken an interest in our RE program, and their son, Gabriel, seemed to find his niche in a matter of moments. This all came together so well, I am beyond hopeful that RE will benefit greatly from our newest family. Hooray for a fantastic May!

All this leads into an equally exciting (and emotional) June! On the 5th we will have the joy of witnessing the Coming of Age service. This year's participants, Lizette Deemar and Grant Schlaus, will remind our congregation that our youth are stunning, kindhearted, and exactly the type of people we want in this world. I can't wait to see this wondrous service!

On the 19th we will have our Bridging Ceremony. We are switching it up a bit this year and using this opportunity to spotlight our most fantastic graduates. We have done all we can to give these youth the tools and values to go out in the world and do good. Please come to celebrate their accomplishments and wish them well!

The 19th is also the start of our summer season! Your children will not want to miss out on the fun! PreK through fourth grade will be exploring science through fun experiments and good ol' messy fun. Fifth grade on up through YRUU will be receiving their letters to attend Hogwarts Summer School. If you are unfamiliar with Hogwarts, I am confident your children will get you up to speed. Oh, and did I mention a trip to Knott's Berry Farm at the end of summer? With all these great activities coming up, maybe your children might want to bring a friend along. The more the merrier! Please keep an eye on your email for further details...

I am giddy with all that will be happening over the next few months. It's going to be a blast!

We are inviting our young ones to light the chalice during first service. We now have sign-ups for our families to commit to coming in on a particular Sunday of choice and take a small but important part in the service. This will allow us to stop the last minute rush in finding a chalice lighter and, as an exciting bonus, add the child's name to the Order of Service.

If your young one is interested in assisting at a service, please contact Sam Dickerson at dre@cvuuf.org. We look forward to seeing you and your young one at service.

~Special thanks to Jill Hansen Schlaus from the Leadership Committee for providing this information.

A Few Words From Reverend Nica...

"Thank you CVUUF! I am so grateful for our amazing week together and you calling me to be your next settled minister. You are such an inspiring group of people and a truly wonderful congregation. It is hard, after such a great, concentrated time together, to have to wait 3 months before I can be with you again. However, I need to conclude my ministry with UU Studio City over the next few months, and will then be going on a much-needed family vacation. I look forward to being with you all again after August 16th. Meanwhile, many blessings to you and be well."

Stewardship Update

Contributions towards our pledges are running nearly on track, and we are grateful for the generosity of the CVUUF members. The Stewardship Committee has been busy with planning for this fall's campaign, and we are looking forward to another successful fundraising effort. We do keep track of contributions as they come in, and our goal is to send out quarterly statements to all. However this year we have switched to a new software system (QuickBooks) and are working with our new administrator (Dianna Mueller). As a result, we did not send out statements for the January-March quarter. We do expect to send out statements in July for the contributions as of the end of June. If you need to know the status of your pledge, please contact Dianna for that information.

CARING COMMUNITY

If you are in need of pastoral care, a listening ear, a ride to church, or care while you are ill, our pastoral care team and neighborhood networks are here to help. UUA General Assembly —Columbus, Ohio June 22-26, 2016

GA Registration and the GA Housing Reservation System

Heart Land: Where Faiths Connect

The faith world is increasingly multifaith. General Assembly 2016 will assemble leaders and communities of many faiths to worship together, learn from one another, and create a new vision of faith that no longer divides us, but connects us to an interdependent future for all.

Rev. Anne and the Board of Trustees would like to know who from our congregation will be attending the Unitarian Universalist Association General Assembly 2016 in Columbus, Ohio. If you are planning to attend, please let Rev. Anne or any of our Trustees know. Also, please let Rev. Anne or a Trustee know if you are interested in serving as an off-site delegate. Off-site delegate registration provides an alternative way for congregations to participate in the business of the Unitarian Universalist Association when their delegates cannot physically attend General Assembly. There is also a 1-Hour Prep Webinar available for on-site and off-site participants ((please see below). Details about the General Assembly are available here: <http://www.uua.org/ga>.

Webinar for GA 2017 Participants

Are you planning on attending General Assembly? If so, the UUA Board of Trustees will host a one-hour webinar which will prepare on-site/off-site delegates for their obligations. Your delegate experience will be greatly enhanced by being prepared for the mini-assemblies and debates on these important issues.

Moderator Jim Key, Vice Moderator Denise Rimes, and several other trustees invite you to join them as they discuss the GA agenda – including the business resolution on Thanksgiving Day Reconsidered and a resolution from the Unitarian Universalists for Justice in the Middle East, preparations for GA 2017 in New Orleans as a justice-making GA, and four potential study/action issues.

You'll have four opportunities to attend this webinar. Up to 100 participants will be able to join each, but please note that although this webinar is scheduled four times, each one covers the same material and need only be attended once.

Register for the Wednesday, June 1, 2016 webinar starting at 8:00 PM EDT.

Register for the Wednesday, June 8, 2016 webinar starting at 8:00 PM EDT.

Rebuilding Sustainable Communities in Uganda

a discussion by Peter Keller, Executive Director

Saturday, June 11, 2016, 7 pm

Wouldn't you like to know that our donations to help the poor are really doing some good? Church, Rotary, Red Cross, smaller organizations – we all make donations to them hoping they'll make a change in people's lives. Is it working?

Come get a report on the state of poverty in the world. And then learn about what one organization, Aid Africa is doing for the very poor people of northern Uganda. Aid Africa provides simple, direct solutions for rural subsistence farmers, bringing entire communities a step out of poverty. Water, stoves, trees and more....

Aid Africa Executive Director Peter Keller will show you a bit of what life is like for the 90% of sub-Saharan Africans who depend on their crops for survival. You'll see that these families living in dire circumstances can live valuable lives. Maybe you'd like to find a way to help. Maybe you'd like to go see for yourself what life is like for many people not as wealthy as we are. You're invited!

Stand Up For Voting Rights—2016 Election

We must speak up faithfully for our values in the current national debates and mobilize for Elections 2016. This will be the first Presidential election without the protections of the voting rights act and it is imperative that we make sure that historically disenfranchised voters – people of color, people with disabilities, of low-income, immigrants, women, and students – and others, are able to vote. Let's get organized, build our movement, and make our voices heard!

Join us for a Voting Rights & Mobilizing for the 2016 Elections Webinar

June 1, 2016 7:00 pm ET (4:00 pm PT).

Susan Leslie, UUA Congregational Advocacy & Witness Director, UUs for Social Justice (UUSJ) and UU congregational leaders will share strategies and resources—including UU Funding Program $750 grants -- for mobilizing during this electoral season.

We'll be talking about faithfully strengthening democracy, registering voters, Getting out the Vote, protecting voting rights, election protection, speaking out on our values, joining interfaith community Town Hall tours, developing community and congregational partnerships and more! RSVP and get Video/Call-In Info Here.

In collaboration with the UU Leadership Institute, Standing on the Side of Love Campaign is launching an eight week on-line course on community organizing starting June 1.

Each week, you can download a 30-minute pre-recorded session.

Over the course of eight modules, we will together explore movement building and organizing 101 with spiritual reflections and tools. The course aspires to be an accessible and affordable tool for people who want knowledge on the subject, and a forum to spark conversations. Newcomers to this stuff, seasoned organizers, and those who have left movement work and are looking for places to come back are all welcome.

The course will be using This is an Uprising as a supplemental companion text. The book can be found online in paper and e-book formats as well as at many local libraries. Also, Amazon offers the book for $12.

Conejo Valley Unitarian Universalist Fellowship

COVENANT OF GOOD RELATIONS

In order to assist us in fulfilling our mission to nurture spiritually courageous people who transform the world through justice and compassion, we the members and friends of the Conejo Valley Unitarian Universalist Fellowship enter into this Covenant of Good Relations.

We, the members and friends of this congregation, value:

- Opening our hearts and minds to those who have traveled journeys unlike ours and whose strengths and challenges may be different from ours.
- A welcoming space for all to speak their truth respectfully.
- The importance of deep listening and respect for each other.
- Relationships with others of all ages, and the gifts that each generation brings to our community.
- The democratic process, through which we give voice to concerns and offer our time and energy to arrive at solutions.

In the wider community, we honor our responsibilities for upholding spiritual ideals, engaging in civil discourse with those of other religious traditions, and promoting our UU values.

In my interactions with others in this congregation, I will:

- Speak honestly and directly to the person(s) with whom I have a concern, using thoughtful, compassionate language.
- Forgive the errors and shortcomings of myself and others as we contribute to our shared ministry and express gratitude for the many gifts we bring.
- Assume good intentions in those with whom I disagree and examine my own part in the disagreement.
- Listen deeply to, and actively seek resolution with those concerned before engaging the Conflict Resolution Committee, Committee on Ministry, the Council or the Board of Trustees in conflict mediation.
- Expect divergent beliefs and opinions and persist in respectful dialogue—especially in times of uncertainty—remaining open to new understandings while doing my part to sustain this Covenant.
- Respect the minister and staff's professionalism, time and privacy.
- Assume responsibility for understanding the church structure and governance model.
- Assume responsibility for keeping informed of church business.

Through this Covenant of Good Relations, it is our intention to foster healthy and productive relations within our church community as we work together to achieve our mission.
